

Foreword

Hail, Alma Mater, Thy sons cheer thee now
To thee TV High School, All rivals must bow.
With victory forever, Our colors will be Forever, forever, They'll wave in victory.

From the mountains of Peru to the quiet Tuscarawas countryside came Manuel Cueva.

- ... friendly to fellow students
- ... eager to learn our customs
- ... excited about America
- ... extends a cheerful smile
- ... well-liked by teachers
- ... quiet, yet his presence creates a clamor of interest
- ... enthusiastic to learn our language

While Manuel was learning from us, he was also teaching us his homeland tradition. We will long remember our South American friend.

We relate to others with a word, a look, a touch, a motion. We relate one to one, one to two, and one to many. How we relate and what we relate is a personal matter
born in the mind and heart.

Anonymous

Nancy Goes To Colombia

Nancy is talking with Camilo, (Colombian brother) Teresa, (Colombian mother) and Isidro (Colombian father).

A garden at El Chico Museo in Bogota.

Nancy is spending her last day in Colombia at home with Myriam, (Colombian sister) Edwardo, (Colombian nephew) and Olga (Colombian sister-in-law).

Nancy Knapp was this year's exchange student sponsored by the Tuscarawas Valley Junior Women's Club. She lived in Bogota, the capital of Colombia with a population of three million.

While there, she stayed with the Isidro Penuela family, attended the Colegio del Sagrado Corazon de Jesus (a Catholic girls' school), visited many interesting places including the gold museum and the Salt Cathedral, and vacationed at the Colombian Coast on the Caribbean for a week.

M a g g i e

Maggie was only here at our school for nine weeks, but in that short period we found her sense of humor and her personality a pleasant asset to our school.
